Sonapur College, Sonapur successfully hold the Gauhati University Inter College Youth Festival Central Zone, 2018, with three day long programme from June 28 to 30. Altogether 419 competitors of twenty seven colleges of the zone, comprises of Kamrup. Kamrum (M) and the Morigaon District, had participated in the festival where competitions were held for 35 different events of music, dance, theatre, literary activities and fine arts.

The festival started with the hoisting of flags of Gauhati University, Directorate of Gauhati University Student Welfare and the Sonapur College in the morning of 28 June, 2018, The flags of the Gauhati University and the Gauhati University Students Welfare Board were hoisted by Dr. Mridul hazarika, Vice Chancellor, Dr. Ranjan Kumar Kakati, Director while the flag of the host Sonapur College was hoisted by Dr. Devabrot Khanikor, Principal, Sonapur College. The inaugural ceremony of the festival, held at the Mini Theatre Hall was presided over by Dr. Jit Ram Dutta, former Academic Registrar, Gauhati University and the President of the Sonapur College Governing Body. The welcome address was given by Dr. Devabrot Khanikor, Principal, Sonapur College and Dr. Ranjan Kumar Kakati, Director, Social Welfare Board, Gauhati University. In the inaugural ceremony the Distinguished Guest Dr. Hari Prasad Sarma, Rector, Gauhati University conveyed his best wishes to the participants by reciting two Sanskrit Slokas. Delivering the speech of the Chief Guest, the Vice Chancellor, Dr. Mridul Hazarika appreciated the multifaceted talents of the students and reiterated the necessity of a platform like Youth Festival for their exposure. Speaking the gathering the Guest of Honour, Atul Bora, local MLA turned nostalgic while sharing his memories of the past youth festivals he attended as a student and a student leader of Cotton College, Guwahati. The inaugural ceremony was also graced by Dr. Bhaben Chandra Neog, Dr. Satyen Barman and Dr. Baobeeta Chauhury, the Principals of B. Barooah College, Guwahati, Jagiroad Colleg and the R. G. Barooah College, Guwahati, respectively.

All the three days of the festival, the competitors, Professor in-charges, the judges, the students, faculties and other associates of the host college had participated with full enthusiasm and enjoyed their stay in Sonapur College. This was quite vivid in the moods and the opinions they expressed in the brief interactive session held on the evening of the 30 June after the conclusion of the last competition. They overwhelmingly commended the arrangements of the competitions, hospitality and the logistics offered by Sonapur College. Besides the secretaries Dr. Dipjyoti Deka and Dr. Ananda Das, the Principal and the President of the organising committee Dr. Devabrot Khanikor expressed heartfelt gratitude to the Gauhati University authority, especially the Director, Students' Welfare, Dr. Ranjan Kumar Kakati, participants, Professor in-charges, judges, and members of different sub-committees for their cooperation towards successful holding of the festival. All of them had a special mention for the students of the college for their unparallel service towards the smooth conduct of the festival.
