The Career Counselling and Placement Cell of Sonapur College has successfully completed a four day long Orientation Programme on Competitive Examinations on Saturday last. Altogether 85 participants had attended the programme and enriched their skill of appearing competitive examinations and facing interviews. The participants include the present and past students of Sonapur College and neighbouring Dimoria College and also a few from Guwahati

City. The programme was aimed at nurturing and grooming the competitive spirit of the students as well as enhances their skill for the same, informed Dr. Dipjyoti Deka and Ms. Shapna Medhi, Conveners of the programme.

The programme was inaugurated on 26 June by Ms. Sewali Chaudhury, Former Regional Director of Reserve Bank of India by ceremonially lighting the lamp. While delivering the inaugural speech she stressed on the need for developing a healthy competitive mindset amongst the younger generation to ensure success in competitive examinations and for which perseverance and focus is the basic prerequisite, she opined. Attending as guest of honour in the inaugural ceremony Ms. Sukanya Goswami, Head, CSR of Star Cements Limited, emphasized on acquiring information about the affiliation and authenticity of any institute before registering for courses for a better career and applauded the efforts of Sonapur College in creating awareness regarding various examinations. Here Dr. Devabrot Khanikor, Principal, Sonapur College delivered the welcome address. The four day programme was divided in eight sessions wherein seven eminent personalities enlightened the participants on various aspects of competitive examinations and approaches of navigating through the process in a successful way.

Mr. Ranjan Baruah, CEO and Founder, NE Youth Foundation, spoke about the various examinations that students could appear in for choosing their career. He also stressed on using the online platform - internet and mobile phones for acquiring more knowledge and updating oneself rather than using the platform unproductively. Mr. Rajdeep Lekharu, Director, Civil Services Achiever's Point, Guwahati conducted two sessions as resource person. In his first session, he stressed on presentation of already acquired knowledge in a different way for having an edge over other candidates in terms of cracking competitive examinations. He also took another session in quantitative aptitudes and gave tips on the same to the participants. In the same programme, Mr. Siddharth Pratim Dutta, a Freelance Live Coach and Communication Trainer spoke extensively on how to face interviews and had hands on tips for the students to develop their personality and elaborated on the minute details they needed to observe about themselves for grooming their personality. Taking part in the programme as resource person, Ms. Saudamini Kakoti, Deputy Manager, SBI, SME, Guwahati dealt specifically on how to crack bank PO examinations and discussed about the syllabus, method of preparation and the study materials to be followed. In another session Mr. Mrigesh Narayan Baruah, Director, Employment and Craftsmanship, Government of Assam, focussed on the importance of keeping oneself updated with the current affairs and general studies and discussed in details about the choice of subjects that can be made for the Civil Service Examinations. In the last session, Mr. Nurul Islam

Laskar, a former SBI officer and Public Relation Consultant spoke about the motivation necessary to prepare oneself for the examinations and the mental attitude required for proper motivation. In this session he was assisted by Ms. Ananya Upamanyu, a promising career consultant and motivational speaker.

In the valedictory function on 29 June, the participants shared their views regarding the importance of such programmes and spoke highly on the benefits they had accrued throughout the 4 days orientation programme. The participants even expressed their willingness to be a part of many such programmes in the days to come. Dr. Devabrot Khanikor, Principal, Sonapur College gave away certificates and wished good luck to the participants.
