Dr. Chakravarty dealt in details about the various reasons — social and psychological — that are the reasons for adolescents committing suicide in the present day scenario. He emphasized on the need for counselling with students in order to guide them and so that they have good mental health.

~~There~~ An interaction session with the students was held in which Dr. Chakravarty gave insights into certain situations. Students asked him questions on how to handle depression, the problems about lying in adolescence etc. The Teachers also put forward various questions related to students that can help the students Teachers in understanding students' behavior.

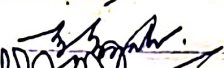

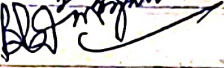

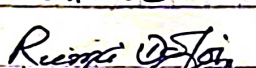

Dr. Chakravarty ended the session with a thankful song.

Finally, the session concluded with a ~~last~~ concluding speech of Principal, Dr. Navabrat Khanikar. in which he reiterated the importance of counselling a psychiatrist when depression engulfs a person. He also stressed on the importance of mental preparation in facing life's and increasing problem solving capacities.
